Diversity in the legal profession

JPC

jpclaw.co.uk

JPC is committed to providing equal opportunities in the provision of services to clients and in the use of external services.

This means that our clients and suppliers will receive equal treatment regardless of sex (including gender reassignment), sexual orientation, race, colour, ethnic origin, nationality, disability, marital status, caring or parental responsibilities, age, or beliefs on matters such as religion and politics.

Similarly we are proud of our diverse team. JPC participate in the Solicitors Regulation Authority annual “Diversity in the Legal Profession” survey and all our colleagues were invited to participate in this voluntary survey in June 2023.

What is presented here, are the stand-out questions and relevant answers and statistics from a cross section of 31 employees.

JPC staff age category

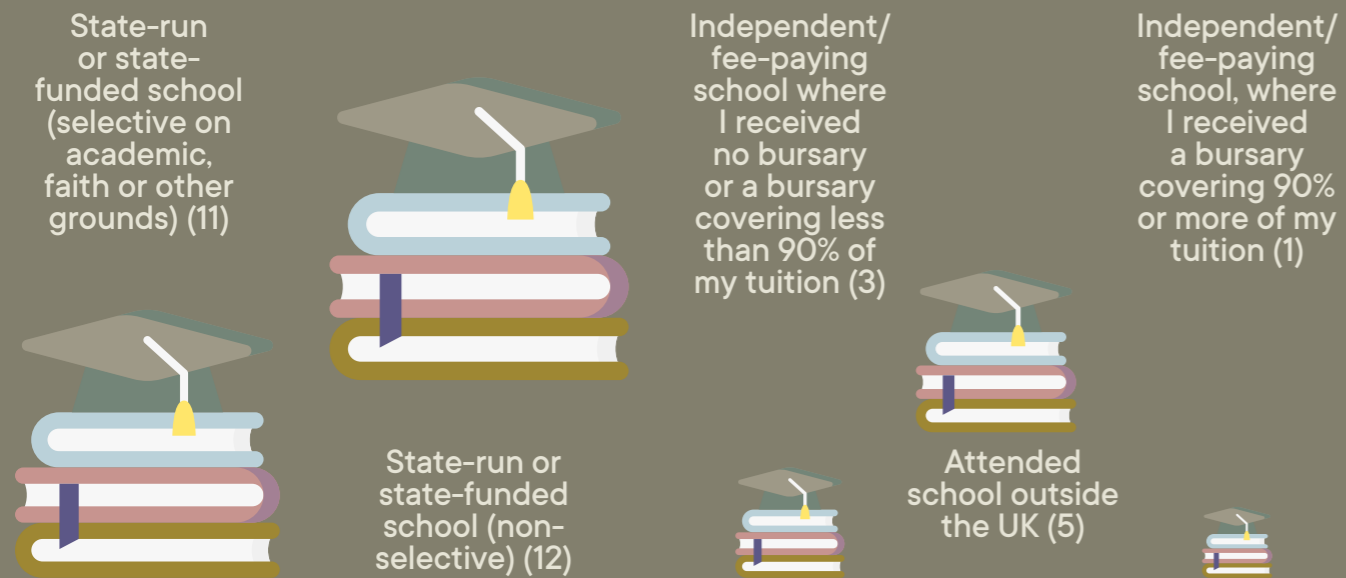

JPC staff gender

JPC staff ethnicity

Range of schooling attended by JPC staff between the ages of 11 and 16 years of age

In line with Data Protection rules, the reported data is summarised to ensure that no individual can be identified.
