Corporate Law at JPC

Your business is our business – and JPC have some of the best corporate legal talent in the profession.

Driven by Andrew Morgan, our Corporate team works across the full spectrum of commercial law. From the humble start-up to significant mergers and acquisitions, we navigate our clients’ instructions with a blend of discerning legal advice and astuteness.

Commercially switched on and strategically savvy, we are experts in transactional work, trends and regulatory developments. With a wealth of cross-industry experience, we have helped thousands of businesses and individuals achieve their objectives and manage risk.

We also know that commercial matters do not always sit neatly in one area – so we navigate cross-sector solutions. By working closely with our colleagues in other departments – Employment, Private Client, Dispute Resolution and Real Estate – we embrace the JPC ethos of success through unity.

Our commercial clients have a diverse range of needs and backgrounds and yet they all have one thing in common: innovative JPC solutions in this fast-paced and ever-changing area of the law.

JPC is an award-winning commercial and private client practice.

Our mission is to work together across disciplines, achieving successful outcomes in an ever-evolving market through skilfully applied legal intelligence.

Our innovative approach of 'success through unity' has served to build and maintain long-standing relationships with both international and UK-based clients. Proactive rather than reactive, we bring together expertise from across our team, delivering tailored solutions to a broad client base.

We are proud of our people, who together create a diverse and driven team. We deal with all matters professionally, efficiently and effectively. We are fully committed to social responsibility and regularly support and engage with local charities and groups in our community.

JPC are members of the International Association of Practising Lawyers and Resolution.
