Dispute Resolution at JPC

JPC’s Dispute Resolution team provide integrated and cost-sensitive solutions to both individual and corporate clients.

Bringing together some of the very best talent in the industry, our experienced litigators deliver clear advice, action and outcomes across a diverse range of legal areas.

We embrace the JPC ethos of strength through unity and draw on considerable expertise from our various departments and people.

Our focus remains on finding you the best path to a positive resolution of your dispute - whether through early intervention, mediation or court.

We will explore time, costs and goals - and will always be transparent with regards the strength of your case. You may not have to go to court, but if you do, we will be right by your side.

We have acted in many successful cases before the County Court, High Court and Court of Appeal, for both domestic and foreign clients. We are equally experienced at handling international disputes.

Sometimes it is important to fight for the outcome you believe in - and we are here to guide you through the complex litigation process and to make the law work for you.
