Family Law at JPC

Our highly experienced family law team understand how complex family disputes can be. We provide client focused, compassionate yet realistic advice to enable you to be able to move on to the next stage of your life in the most effective and least painful way possible. No matter the dispute, our approach begins with understanding and sensitivity.

We handle all areas of family law, including divorce, cohabitee disputes and private law children matters, but with a strong emphasis on financial remedy work following divorce, including those with an international element or involving high net worth assets and complex business structures. We also provide advice and representation in the full range of family issues and disputes for the married and unmarried family and regularly work with other professionals to protect our clients’ interests, both financially and emotionally.
